Dear Madam:

"The American Journal of Numismatics" is no longer issued. For a number of years it came out as an annual at $5.00 a year and in consequence no free copies were given out. We can supply any back number at this price. If you can let me know just what you wish this for, we can advise you better what magazine on numismatics would be best for you.

Very truly yours,

Curator

Dear Sirs,

Sometime ago I wrote and asked you about the Amer. Journal of Numismatics and you wrote that they are no longer published but that you would give me any information I would require.

I wish to get some cardboard coin holders but can find no coin dealer who has them. Could you tell me where I could get same?

Would you please advise me what Numismatic magazines I should get as I am interested in copper, nickel & silver coins of the U. S. & Great Britain.

Thanking you for any information

you may give me I am,

Yours truly,

Violet Brezany

P.S. How could I join the Amer. Numismatic Society and what advantages would I have if I did.

Dear Madam:

The best place to apply to for the card-board holders is M. L. Beistle, 421 W. King St., Shippensburg, Pa., who may have regular stock forms with different sized holes with celluloid facings, or they can make anything you want on order.

Our Society issues monographs on special subjects several times a year, which are sent free to our members. For the most part, these are for advanced collectors and especially for collectors of ancient coins. I am herewith sending you an application blank and prospectus of our Society. I am also enclosing a prospectus and application blank of the American Numismatic Association. This might possibly answer your needs as the Association publishes a monthly magazine.

Very truly yours,

Curator
